Some folks are born complainersl
They gripe no matter what!
Kick about the weather,
When it's cold or when it's hot!
Then there are the folks who have
A different point of view.
And even on a cloudy day
They'll find a patch of blue.
They take the many ups and downs
Life offers in their stride.
And know that happiness depends
On how they feel inside.
And while it takes all kinds to make a world
We would have to say
These are the folks it's nice to have
Around us every day.

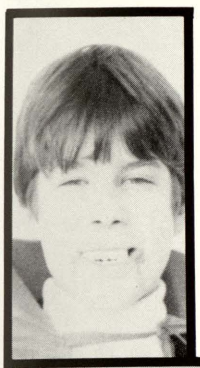
VOCAL MUSIC IS . . . CONCERTS, PLAYS,



I'm glad I had the opportunity to sing in the choir at Mackinaw Middle School. I am thankful for the experiences that I might not have had somewhere else. These experiences couldn't have been possible without Ms. Cheger. She always gave just a little bit more in everything she did to make things extra special for all of us. She always encouraged us to do our very best.

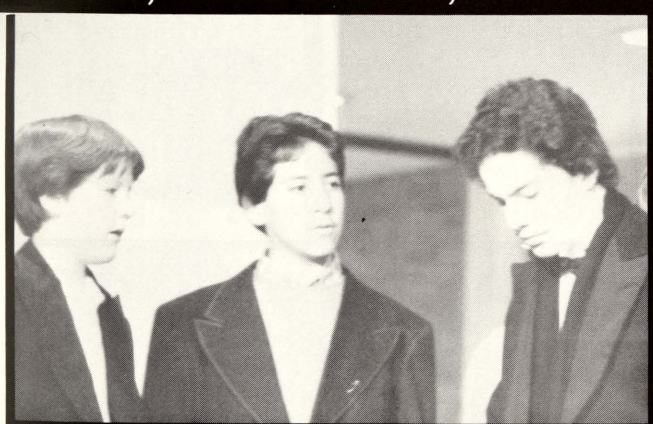
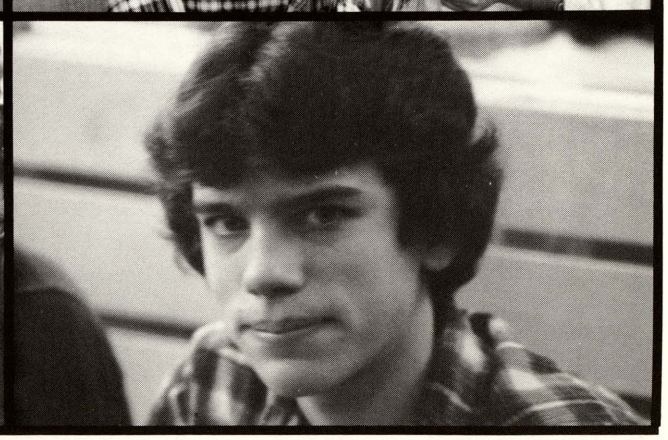
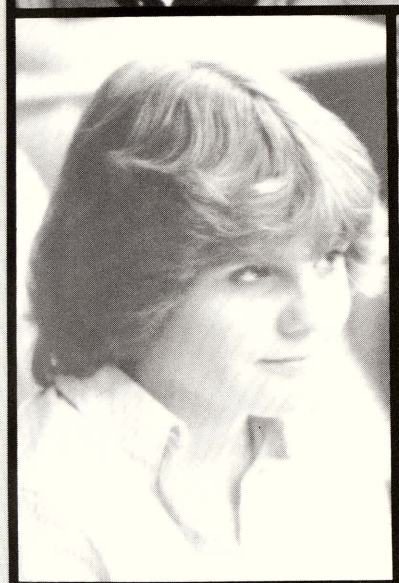
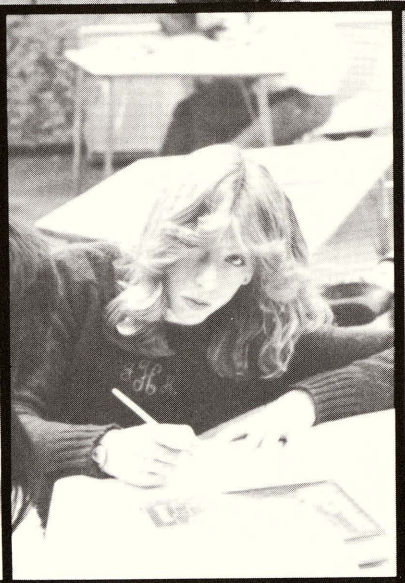
SOLOS, HARMONIES, AND MERRIMENT









7th Grade

Every school morning my alarm clock rings
And I hear the shower as my sister sings.
Boy, what a noise that sister can make!
I cover up my ears as I feel the house shake.

I somehow finally make it to school.
All my friends throw me an April fool.
I fall for it carelessly forgetting the date.
They laughed at me thoughtlessly until we were late.

I walk to the office to get a white slip.
A blue one comes toward me; did I have a fit!!
I kept yelling and screaming; the whole school heard.
When I finally stopped, I sure felt absurd.

I could never remember such a horrible day.
I thought, "Why does life have to be this way?!"

— Tricia Chuo

A friend is like a shoe.
You always look for the one
That is the right fit for you.
As a pair we have lots of fun!!

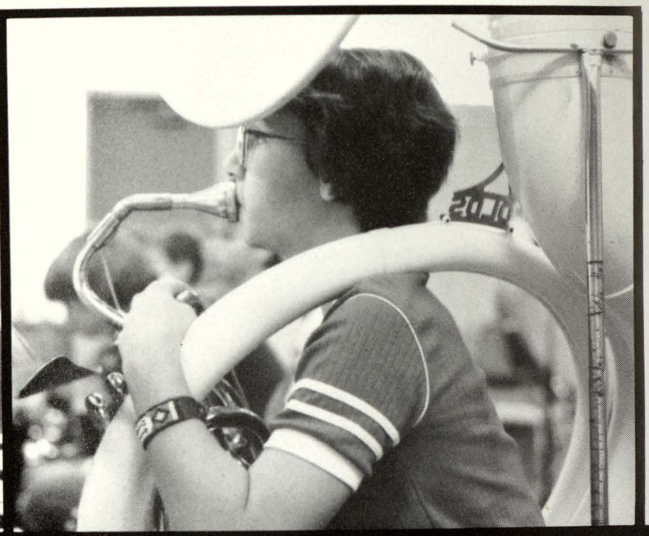
Being in the band is lots of fun. You work each day for the chance to sit in the first chair. After you become the best, you must work hard to remain there. You learn new music and have the chance to play for other people. You practice daily to become more accomplished. After playing at a concert, you know you have entertained others and made your parents proud.

— Doug Sweeting



BAND IS . . . HORNS, WOODWINDS, FLUTES,

DRUMS, BELLS, CYMBALS, AND FUN

6th GRADE

The clock slowly ticks away
I'm on the edge of my chair.
Oh, how I long for two-thirty five!
This is more than I can bear!

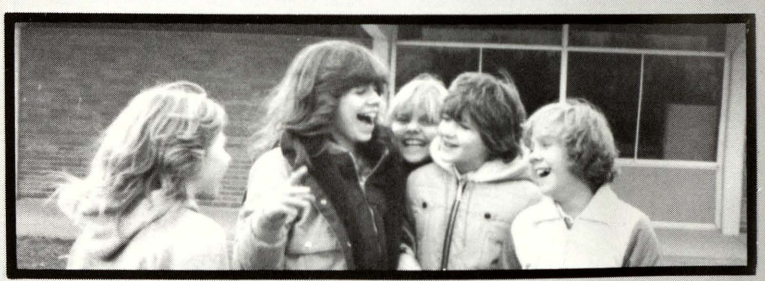
— Tricia Chuo

Let's put some laughter in our lives
Revive a dream or two
Have faith that if we try enough
There's nothing we can't do!

— Judy Heidger

Out of bed and on our way
Back to school for another day.
We work really hard and have some fun.
Then leave for home when day is done.

— Chris Fleener



We left to compete with Chippewa's team
I said to myself, "They're gonna get creamed!"
The gun shot was fired; it rang in my ears.
I gritted my teeth and ran without fears.
The ribbon came toward me; I reached it first.
The opponents sat around and began to curse.
If I had lost, I would not feel like a fool.
Though, I'd do anything to win for my school.

— Tricia Chuo

As we bid farewell to the old year
Let's welcome in the new.
With hopeful expectations
And an optimistic view.

1983 Mackinaw Middle

Mackinaw's teachers are the best
They don't ignore us like the rest.
They ask us questions to show they care.
They're never partial; attention they share.
When I go to "Ike" I hope I find
Teachers as good as Mackinaw's kind.

— Soni Mithani

Coming to Mackinaw was a big event;
Trembling and scared through the halls I went.
Seeing new faces and hoping to find
A special friend that I could call mine.
It really paid off for working so hard;
The proof of it showed on my very first card.
When we got to the dance, the floor was bare.
Girls stood by girls, all combing their hair.
In their Jordache, Sasoons, and Kleins,
Hoping the boys would read the signs.
How willing we were to take the first chance
Out on the floor for the very first dance!
Thinking about me and all of my friends,
It's hard to believe this year will soon end.
Here in the school now I can say
I see these things in a brand new way.
As I go through the halls and through the doors
These familiar scenes are threatening no more.
And to the students who are yet to come . . .
Don't be afraid to have some fun.
